Panchpran Pledge

On August 9th, 2023, the faculty and students of Dr. V N BRIMS came together to take the "Panchpran Pledge." This pledge embodies a collective dedication from both students and faculty to contribute to India's progress and self-sufficiency by the year 2047.

At its core, the "Panchpran Pledge" represents a united effort to eliminate any remnants of a colonial mindset. It places a strong emphasis on honoring India's rich heritage, fostering a sense of national unity, and showing profound respect for the nation's defenders.

Moreover, this pledge highlights the significance of fulfilling our civic responsibilities, nurturing a sense of duty, responsibility, and love for our country among all citizens. The "Panchpran Pledge" encompasses a comprehensive approach that propels India towards a brighter future, seamlessly combining our deep-rooted historical pride with contemporary ambitions. It is a sincere acknowledgment of the sacrifices made by those who protect our nation.
